Covenantal Statement

In signing this covenantal statement, I fully recognize that Emerge International University (“EIU”) was founded to be a Christian educational center of theological studies. As such, students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with biblical teachings and standards, not acting in such a manner as to bring a bad report against EIU. EIU reserves the right to dismiss any student who violates these standards.

In signing this covenantal statement, I am stating that as a person of integrity I commit to the following:

1. I commit to apply myself wholeheartedly; to faithfully attend class, to do the required homework assignments, and diligently study the assigned reading materials.
2. I commit to allow God to work in my life, illuminating my understanding.
3. I commit to strive to reach my God given potential in my ministerial vocation.
4. I commit to conduct myself according to biblical teachings and standards, not acting in such a manner as to bring a bad report against the Institute.
5. I commit to treat those related to EIU (professors, administrators, assistants, students, and others) with the utmost respect and to refrain from activities that would hinder the learning and growth process of these individuals.
6. I commit to abide by the rules and regulations that may from time to time be adopted by the university.
7. I commit to inform the professor beforehand (except in emergencies) when I am unable to attend class, understanding that it is my obligation to find out when and where the class will be offered again.
8. I commit to complete the educational program of the Institute and pay all enrollment, tuition, and activity fees.
